

Burglary at cat grooming centre in Cambridge

Unknown person stole innocent cats by breaking a window at 3 am from Cambridge's famous cat grooming centre.

Mumu the Cambridge Cat of the year 2008 and several other pedigree disappeared that night. Mrs Hill the owner of the prize winning cat Mumu is distracted by the incident as well as the owner of Purrfect Parlour Mr and Mrs Banks: "We are shocked that anyone would want to steal innocent cats!".

"Pets are like family members. The owners are very distressed. We are doing all we can to rescue Mumu and the other cats and return them to their homes.", so the police who is still looking for the thief. If you have recognised any incidents related to the disappearance of the animals please report on the next available police department.